The map shows a forested area with a road or path. A green rectangular area with two black silhouettes of people walking is labeled with a yellow dashed line. A red and white striped barrier is also visible. A red flag icon is placed near the barrier. A pink dashed arrow points towards the bottom left. Several red circular icons with a white 'X' and a black silhouette of a person are placed along the route. A yellow dashed line connects a small white square icon to the red flag icon.
